Dear friends of Saints Peter Paul and Philomena,

Next Thursday we celebrate the feast of the Immaculate Heart. According to the prophesy of Saint Simeon when Our Lord was presented in the temple, a sword of sorrow was to pierce the heart of Our Lady as she shared in the sufferings of her Divine Son. She accompanied Him throughout His life, and was there at the foot of the cross. This heart, sorrowful but immaculate - preserved from all sin – is our refuge in this vale of tears. On the feast of the Assumption the Irish Bishops consecrated Ireland to the Immaculate Heart in Knock, and our Holy Father, Pope Francis, will consecrate the world to her Heart in October. Let us unite ourselves to him as we entrust ourselves to her maternal protection.

God bless you!

Abbé Scott Tanner
