Dear friends of Saints Peter and Paul and Philomena,

During the month of October, the Church asks us in a particular way to practice the devotion of the Rosary of Our Lady. Meditating upon the mysteries of Our Lord's life, we follow Jesus Christ along the different steps of our personal salvation: each of us can apply to his own life the mysteries of the Rosary, and we have to go through each of them, from the joyful events to the sorrowful moments of the Christian life. The rosary beads we always keep with us (in a pouch or in our pocket perhaps?) are the physical reminder of the incarnation of these mysteries: the beads slide through our fingers during the course of our recitation, and the invisible thread which links them together is the sign of God's love. The rosary brings us special graces to help us to grow in love for God and to become more charitable towards our brethren.

The Holy Father will consecrate the world to the Immaculate Heart of Mary next Sunday: for each of us, this is a propitious occasion to renew our devotion to the Rosary for his intentions and for the conversion of the world.

God bless you, Canon Montjean
