Dear friends,

The Liturgy of Easter Octave gave us all the gospels of the Resurrection of our Lord : they find their achievement in the Divine Mercy Sunday because our Saviour appeared mercifully to his Apostles, to saint Magdalena, to his disciples. He wanted to support their Faith and to show he could forgive all their sins or lack of Faith committed during his Passion.

Justice and mercy always walk together in God’s will, but His mercy is the envelope of his justice. That means God wants us to receive a personal reward for our actions on earth, but this heavenly reward is infinitively more precious than the strict reward for our good actions. This merciful and divine “behaviour” appears specifically in the Sacrament of Confession : this Sacrament of forgiveness and contrition is unique in the Catholic Church and has to be very dear to our spiritual life. In Confession, God wants us to participate in His merciful activity by our own and sincere contrition, a real sorrow for our sins; and this apparently weak participation is sufficient for God to give supernatural life or refresh it in our soul.

This Sunday of the Divine Mercy has to be a day of thanksgiving for all the past forgiveness received in our life from God, but also should renew in our heart the desire to receive with more fruit the Sacrament of Confession.

God bless you ! Canon Amaury Montjean
