Dear Friends of Ss Peter, Paul and Philomena,

We are living the last hours of the Triduum : the solemn veneration of Our Lord's Cross for Good Friday reminded us the value of our Salvation. Jesus Christ did not hesitate to give His human Life to show the Love of the Whole trinity for the world. This incomprehensible gift was sensibly shown in the Passion by all the sorrows and Holy Wounds, received on the Stations of the Cross. Comparing this Love of God and our poor replies to his tenderness, we find a deep difference and a lack of our personal faithfulness. As our Pope Francis said yesterday night during the Stations of the Cross at the Coliseum, "The Cross is the word that God used as an answer against evil in the world. It seems that sometimes God stays quiet in front of evil, He does not reply. But He answered in one Word, Our Lord's Cross. This Word is Love, Mercy and Forgiveness. It is also a judgment : God saves us by loving us. We have to remember that if I accept his Love, I am redeemed, if I refuse, I condemned myself."

Expecting with each of you the Resurrection of Our Saviour, I wish you a Blessed and happy Easter,
God bless you, Canon Amaury Montjean.
