Breaking news...We have secured a £10,000 National Churches Trust Grant.

Fantastic news! This grant is a significant contribution to that match funding target of £40,000 by February. We have nearly done it! It means that the essential works will begin in April 2014.

Thank you National Churches Trust!

Dear friends of the Shrine,
The family is a sacred place and no human power could amend this truth: the feast day of the Holy Family helps each of us to remember the importance to defend the human life from its beginning to the end, and the necessity of any family (as the only natural cell of the society) to educate children to goodness, truth and beauty. The family is also the "ecclesiola", e.g. a small "church" because it is where the catholic Faith is first given to the future generations. May we ask graces to defend our families in this liturgical occasion ! God bless you,
Canon Montjean
