Several days ago, on 24th March the feast of St. Gabriel the Archangel, we celebrated the second anniversary of the canonical establishment of the Shrine by His Lordship the Bishop of Shrewsbury. As the bishop said in his sermon at the re-opening of the church in 2012: 'We can only be a dynamic, evangelising community if we are rooted in the continuity of the Church's faith and worship (...). We wish to recognise in this Shrine Church set high on the Wirral horizon not simply a landmark but a beacon announcing hope to passing generations. So above the mists of confusion which obscure our vision, the storms of controversy which unsettle us we may turn our gaze always towards Christ, loving and redeeming us, in the Sacrifice and Sacrament of the Altar, He who lives and reigns for ever and ever.' We are most grateful to Bishop Davies for his support for the Shrine and its work, and we look forward to receiving him here in several weeks for the joyous occasion of the confirmations. We give thanks to Almighty God for the many graces he has bestowed on the Shrine – baptisms, weddings, people rediscovering their faith or coming to learn more about the Catholics faith – over the last two years.
