It is evident, from a comparison with the life of the body, that the action which is proper to man immediately after birth, is different from the action which is proper to him when he has come to perfect age. And therefore by the sacrament of Confirmation man is given a spiritual power in respect of sacred actions other than those in respect of which he receives power in Baptism. For in Baptism he receives power to do those things which pertain to his own salvation, forasmuch as he lives to himself: whereas in Confirmation he receives power to do those things which pertain to the spiritual combat with the enemies of the Faith. (...) All have to wage the spiritual combat with our invisible enemies. But to fight against visible foes, viz. against the persecutors of the Faith, by confessing Christ's name, belongs to the confirmed, who have already come spiritually to the age of virility

– Saint Thomas Aquinas, Summa Theologiae, Third Part, Question 72, article 5.

Sacrament of Confirmation today SUNDAY 4TH MAY AT 11.30AM, followed by Pontifical Low Mass, celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Mark Davies, Bishop of Shrewsbury. Please join our Bishop for this happy occasion!
