Dear friends of the Shrine,

In preparation for the Feast of the Ascension of Our Lord, our sights are focused on Heaven: the Apostles could not believe that their Master would leave them after His Resurrection. They wonder, "When will you come to establish your kingdom on earth?" Our Lord does not answer his disciples: he wants to keep their faith vivid and asks them by his silence to hope in another Kingdom, the eternal presence of God.

This question has been constantly renewed by the world and in our hearts: when will He established his grace with power and strength, as the Apocalypse states and prophesies. Yes he will come to judge the living and the dead, from this same sky in which he has disappeared before his disciples. He sends them and us his angels to comfort us in this vale of tears. The main teaching of this great feast is given therefore in the mystery of the Rosary: the fruit of the Ascension is Hope. Not the hope given by the world, which is but a longing for temporary goods, but this true hope which, founded on faith, desires to reach heaven. May Our Lady, Mother of Hope, helps us to seek this eternal life in the midst of our sorrows!

God bless you,

Canon Montjean
